THE GAZETTE.

THURSDAY EVENING, MAY 18.

A man in Ashland, Pennsylvania, recently ordered a "fine gold watch" from one of the swindling agencies in New York. In due time he received, after paying ten dollars express charges, a beautiful "glass marble" block, well boxed, with a note attached reading thus: "Dear Sir—The mystery in regard to this is to find the key hole by which to wind it up. Numerous persons have been searching for it during the past year, and have failed in finding it, but we hope that you will be successful. Respectfully,—Williams & Co. P. S. All fools will learn by experience."

COMMUNICATED.

The efforts of the party of young men to please certain residents of the Third Ward by serenading them nightly are unappreciated. The music, so far from being admired, is considered a nuisance, which, it is said, measures will be instituted at once to abate.
